VOL. XXIX. NO. 31. BRISTOL, BUCKS COUNTY, PA., THURSDAY, MARCH 13. 1902. PRICE THREE CENTS

Clothing.

Will you look at our stock of clothing? Some facts. Look at these prices: Men's suits, black cheviot, $5.00—good value. Mixed cheviots, $6 75, worth $8.00; $7.00, worth $9.00; $8.00, worth $10.00; $10.00, worth $12.50; $12.00, worth $15; $13.00, worth $18 00. Spring overcoats, $10. This is our price; why pay $12 in the city for the same style coat? You had better save this $2. Also a full line of boys' and childrens' clothing. Hats, caps, and gent's furnishing goods. Johnson Bros., Cor. Mill and Wood streets, Bristol, Pa.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by all druggists.

Twice Proved.

From the Vindicator, Rutherfordton, N. C.

The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the most remarkable results in each case. First, with rheumatism in the shoulder from which he suffered excruciating pain for ten days, which was relieved with two applications of Pain Balm, rubbing the parts afflicted and realizing instant benefit and entire relief in a very short time. Second in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. For sale by all druggists.

Trenton, March 12.

WE ARE HOLDING THE FIRST SHIRT WAIST RECEPTION

A few years ago and it wouldn't have seemed important enough to announce a shirt waist reception, but to-day there are so many different kinds and such dressy things that they have compelled a recognition and a place in merchandising not second to any other line of goods shown by the up-to-the-times merchant.

We have built a new room for them, flooded it with pure light, cut arches, remodeled, refurnished and, best of all, stocked it with the best variety, most carefully selected variety, by far away, that we have ever called your attention to. Come see how well we have done our work.

Prices start at 50c. and end at $6.00.

AN EARLY EASTER

starts the silk and dress goods selling earlier than usual. February was a new record maker for silk and dress goods selling. March should show still greater gains. Will, if we may judge by the sales so far. Spick and span new silks. Kinds you haven't laid your eyes on until now.

POMPADOUR SILKS

In taffetas, foulards. Neat embroidered stripes on white and quiet tinted backgrounds. Folk take kindly to pompadour silks, there's so much to recommend them; they're a trimming in themselves. Wonderful effects of dressmakers' art can be embodied in a gown of pompadour silk.

Pompadour silks, 79c., $1.00 and $1.25.

CORDED AND BROCADED PONGEES

Different from the old-time favorites; unsightly, but ever-popular roughish pongees. These have a smooth surface, and the dots are embroidered mostly. Some printed effects. 69c. and 85c.

Then follow a

LONG LIST OF OTHER SILKS

So many of them that we can only make a brief notice of each:

Corded Kahki wash silks, 39c.
Swiss taffeta silks, 69c.
Liberty satins, 79c.
Satin finished Peau de Soies, 85c.
Crepe duchess, $1.00.
Lumineux, $1.00.
27-in. China and India silks, 59c.
Satin finished taffetas, 50c.
Lace embroidered taffeta silks, 69c. and 75c.
Crepe de Chene, $1.00.
Fancy striped and figured taffeta silks, 59 cents.
Drawn thread, hemstitched and embroidered combination taffeta silks, $1.00.
Persian striped taffetas, $1.00.
Jaspar silks, figured and brocaded dots, in relief and self colors, $1.00.
Corded and ribbon striped combination satin finished Peau de Soies, $1.00.
Black morie velours, $1.00 and $1.25.
Black pompadour silks, $1.19.
Black hemstitched and drawn work taffetas, 85c.
44-in. black grenadines, plain meshes, fancy figures, brocades and stripes, $1.00 to $3.50.
Then a dozen kinds of plain silks, taffetas, foulards, Chinas, Indias, all sorts, 50c. to $1.00.

PENN VALLEY.

Miss Sara B. Smith spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Pliny Burdick, of Oxford Valley.

Visitors during the week were Charles Markley, of Newportville, at William Bevan's; Mrs. Edward Cox and Mrs. Herman Margerum, of Morrisville, at George Brook's; Miss Edna Young, of Morrisville, at Henry C. Dickel's; Mrs. James Nolan, of Trenton, at William Wilkes'.

EDGELY.

W. C. Watson is occupying the Hunt property.

William McClintoc is moving in one of the Landreth houses.

Mrs. Mary Duncan, of Bristol, spent Sunday with Mrs. E. R. Hellings.

Miss Bertha Lokerson, Jamesburg, N. J., is visiting her uncle, J. Y. Williams.

J. M. King, of Penn Valley, will occupy the house vacated by William McClintoc.

EMILIE.

Mrs. Beck, of Trenton, visited Mrs. W. Blinn, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, of Andalusia, visited Mrs. Frank Wright on Friday.

The roads, generally, are much improved, though places are found almost impassable owing to quicksand, which is a menace to public safety.

A rather unique moving passed through our village on Monday, consisting not only of household goods and furnishings, but the houses themselves packed snugly on wagons, each drawn by four horses.

OXFORD VALLEY.

Miss Jennie Wildman will lead Christian Endeavor on Sunday.

Mrs. Ellsworth Bilbee, of Yardley, is visiting relative in this village.

Warner Martindell moved to A. P. Stradling's property on Monday.

Arthur Hellyer spent Saturday and Sunday at his home in Penn's Park, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Paxson, of Irwin, Pa., were visiting friends in this village last week.

Nicholas Tyrrell moved from Joseph Tomlinson's house to Kirkbride Wright's, near Fallsington.

Owing to the storm on Tuesday of last week, Joseph B. Tomlinson's public sale of stock, crops, farming implements and household goods was postponed until Friday, March 14th.

The Passing of "Central"

A very significant innovation is a telephone system that does away with "Central." In practicable and successful operation in Fall River, Mass., is a telephone exchange providing an automatic arrangement whereby the subscriber, by revolving a disk—somewhat like the disk of a combination safe—until it checks off the number he wishes to call for, "rings up" the number. Bringing the "combination" to the first number in the series he wishes causes a switch in the "Central" exchange to swing to a certain group of contacts; the next number narrows the selection to a certain number of contacts in the group; the last brings it to the identical spot required. The caller then pushes a button and the connection is established. If the line is busy, a buzzing noise gives him warning. The calls come in first to the larger trunk lines, of course, and thus it might be expected that the apparatus would be often busy, since one call would shut off accessibility to many numbers in the group of instruments covered by the trunk line, but an ingenious contrivance causes the current to pass by the trunk lines that are busy till it comes to one not in use, so that the system would fail to work only when all the trunk lines of selectors were busy. Even then the buzzed warning would indicate that the caller would have to wait only until one of ten persons had finished talking.

The cost of maintaining the mechanical part of the system has not increased. And though it works hardship to discharged employes, the system economizes in wages, for with the exception of necessary bookkeepers and a few attendants to see that things run on without hitches, a force of work-people is not required. Indeed, on Sundays and during the night while the exchange is locked, the systems continue making their connections without supervision. Privacy is secured. Cheapness is secured. The automatic telephone means another step in the elimination of middlemen and the automatizing of life.—March World's Work.

Dangers of Colds and La Grippe.

The greatest danger from colds and la grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous malady. It will cure a cold or an attack of la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

Owing to the dry cold atmosphere, not a single infectious disease is indigenous to Greenland.

NEWPORTVILLE.

All Republicans in our neighborhood are for George W. Strauser for the Assembly.

Mrs. Charles Mathews is on the sick list. Dr. Wilson, of Bristol, is in attendance.

The roads are about clear of snow. It is alleged that blue birds have been heard which is an omen of spring; gentle spring.

Daniel Potter and family, we are sorry to hear, are going to move from our village to a farm near Bristol. We wish him well in this new calling, and will miss Grandpop Webster also.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Savacool are suffering from inflamatory rheumatism and their limbs are swollen to enormous size. Mr. and Mrs. Savacool have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad afflictions. But we are happy to state that Miss Hannah Savacool, our genial little friend, is on the slow but sure road to recovery.

The entertainment given in Johnson's Hall, Hulmeville, on Saturday evening last was a grand success, both in numbers and financially. The proceeds which were for the benefit of the school library at that place amounted to about $40.00. Talent from Newportville assisted. The Misses Everitt and Miss Lizzie Mathews took active parts.

Samuel Stackhouse, who died on Tuesday, March 4th was well known in this neighborhood. He was born in Bristol township in 1818, and was 84 years of age at the time of his demise. He was employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and was highly esteemed by both the company and his fellow comrades. He leaves a small family.

William Parsons, of Labaska, a lineman for the D. and A. Telephone Compny caught his foot in a cross brace while adjusting wires opposite the palatial residence of Select Councilman Patton, at Flushing, on February 28th. His foot was badly lacerated and for a time he hung suspended by his left foot thirty feet in mid air. Being a man of large stature (weighing 215 pounds) it was with some difficulty that he removed the injured member and was able to descend the pole. Harry Vandegrift, Mr. Patton's farmer, brought Mr. Parsons to the hotel of William H. Savacool, and Dr. Horace Fleckenstine was called in and under the doctor's skillful treatment he is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances. At times Mr. Parson suffers excruciating pain but is very patient through it all. Frank Vansant Sr., of this place, is the nurse and deserves great credit for his tireless energy and nightly virgils. Dr. Fleckenstine says it will be several weeks before Mr. Parsons will be able to leave his room. He has been a lineman for the American Telephone Company for 13 years and was valued highly by that company and esteemed by his fellow employes.

Over in New Jersey they have stone roads. Here in Bucks county we have mud roads. Mark the contrast. In Jersey it only requires two horses to pull a four-horse load; in Bucks county it requires four horses to pull a two-horse load—that is when there is lots of mud. Over in Jersey they dig down into the earth to the depth of about one and a half feet, large stone is hauled and thrown into same, and the crevices are filled in with smaller stones, and the whole is covered with gravel and pressed by a large steam crusher. The same could be done here at a very little cost. If it should increase our taxes at the start, in the future the taxes would diminish, for there would be very little expense to be put on the roads after they were once made good and hard. Let C. T. Headley give us an example by building a stone road from Midway to Newportville, and a stone road from this place to Croydon Station, two pieces of road which are very heavy in the winter season, and which construction will be as an advertisement to the people of Bristol township and others as well. It is said that the State of New Jersey appropriates so much for the making and maintenance of same. Very true, but we can send men to Harrisburg who will advocate the construction of stone roads. Give us stone roads like they have in New Jersey.

NEWPORTVILLE ROAD.

Mrs. Jasper Lorimer was the guest of Mrs. Henry Baker on Thursday.

Master Warren Allen was the guest of Master George H. Weayman on Thursday.

Miss Lee, of Flushing, went to Baltimore on last Monday to visit friends for several days.

Our friend, Taxadermist Ely, went to New York on Thursday morning last to spend a few days with his parents.

Miss Josephine Boutcher, who has been confined to the house with a severe cold the past two weeks, is out again attending to her duties in Philadelphia.

Mrs. J. K. Winder and daughter, of "McKee City," left today for Frankford, their future home. They have the well wishes of their many friends who they leave behind.

We would ask our correspondent of West Bristol township who the China Lane lover is? We were not aware we had such a bright star in our midst. Why not name him for Mayor?

Owing to the severe weather of the past week Mrs. Elizabeth Lafferty, who had made all necessary preparations for a visit to her daughter in Tacony on last Thursday to be absent several months, was compelled to postpone the visit until some future time when the weather is more favorable.

Mr. Lee's hired man had a narrow escape from being killed on Monday morning last. He drove to Cornwells in a covered wagon after two barrels of sand and on returning home he drove from the main road into the gutter which is a drop of about four feet. The wagon upset with the two barrels of heavy sand, completely demolished the wagon. The horse striped himself of the harness and ran away, but did not run far until he was caught by Joseph Vandegrift, who happened to be coming down the road at the time of the accident. Fortunately the man and horse were not injured in any way.

Brain-Food Nonsense.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will sustain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millionns. A few doses aids digestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies of J. Edward Wright and Emlen Martin, Bristol; E. E. Johnson, Tullytown. Get Green's Special Almanac.

DOYLESTOWN.

The first application for a liquor license for the present year comes from Bristol. It was filed by James McIlvaine, of that borough, who asks for a bottler's license.

The new fire house plans have been approved by the company as submitted by A. Oscar Martin, architect. The only problem is to procure the money to pay for the building, which will cost about $6,500. Of this sum $5,000 has been guaranteed.

Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady, author and former Archdeacon, delivered the mid-week Lenten sermon at St. Paul's Church on Wednesday last. His discourse was especally fine in the descriptive parts, which were as graphic and strong as the pages of his books.

Major Charles H. Worman, of the First Brigade, and Quartermaster Sergeant Bishop inspected Company G and the property of the troops on Friday last. Captain Shellenberger and his men were complimented upon their soldierly appearance and proficiency in drill.

A curve in the trolley tracks near the postoffice afforded considerable amusement to many citizens and discomfort and embarrassment to others during the sleighing period last week. A number of sleighs were overturned and the occupants dumped out, the runners catching in the tracks.

At the last regular meeting of the local Board of Health the Secretary had no deaths to report for the month of February, a good showing for the old borough. There were three marriages and three births. The duties of the Board are not burdensome and the Health officer's salary is so much money picked up, taking the year round.

Caleb Walton, a former citizen of Newtown, was lodged in jail here Saturday by Sheriff Hobensack. Walton has been wanted at Newtown for about six years, it being alleged that he had a hand in a burglary committed there that long ago. It appears that he has been living in the vicinity for some time, and as Sheriff Hobensack chanced to be in Newtown, Walton was turned over to his custody after arrest.

Two prisoners beliveed to be dangerous men are awaiting trial here for an attempted robbery at the Yardley National Bank. They are Walter Kline and John Lee, members of a gang arrested in Philadelphia some time ago. It was thought they were concerned in the Yardley affair, in consequence of which they were brought here and subsequently given a hearing in Yardley before Justice Eastburn. The hearing took place on Friday, when a number of witnesses testified that they had seen the prisoners at the time the attempted robbery took place. They were held in default of bail in the sum of $1500 each.

Since the meeting of the Democratic County Committee the party paper, the Democrat, has made an earnest appeal for harmony. In an editorial believed to have been written by a local leader the warring factions are advised to cease quarreling or die. The appeal referred to has been the subject of considerable comment as it is rather startling in metaphor and style. In referring to the election of Mr. Anders as County Chairman and the work cut out for him the writer in one paragraph discourses in this fashion concerning the suggestion that the party get together or die:

"If it prefers to die then the sooner Chairman Anders can learn that fact, the less useless labor he will waste and the more time he will have to console himself for its premature burial here by a study of the principles of Democracy in private, sorrowing in his lonesomeness, but glorying in the pure air and delectable prospect which surrounds and discloses itself to every Democrat whose vision is not obscured by the tears of weak and useless grief for what we have failed to do which we should have done, or whose eyes are not so crossed by suspicious watching of others that they fail to catch the dawning light of Democracy's rising sun, but see only the shadows cast by the stones which mark the graves of buried hopes."

This is the first time that the party paper has made acknowledgement of the fact that factional feeling still eixsts. The meeting of the County Committee did not tend to heal the breach. The friends of Henry A. James, candidate for chairman, feel that his defeat was due to the fact that he was regarded as in sympathy with the sound money fraction and not the dyed-in-the-wool article preferred by the regulars. Mr. James withdrew his name when he discovered the situation. The Democrat's appeal to its party as quoted above is interpreted as a suggestion to Mr. James and the faction with which he is identified to let the matter drop in the interest of harmony.

PENN'S MANOR.

Mrs. Neely is suffering from rheumatism.

George Brooks is slowly recovering from his late illness.

John McClister has been quite ill for some time, but is getting better slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bruer contracted a severe cold, and are at present confined in the house with the gripp.

The snow strom on last Wednesday morning drifted the roads again in places but there was no shoveling needed this time.

The continuous high river has kept the creeks and lowlands filled with water; also the low parts of the Bordentown road have been under water since the freshet.

Fred Wurst moved from "down Jersey" to the farm of Mrs. M. Black on last Tuesday evening under great difficulties because of bad roads. He will manage the farm this season.

Considering the condition of the roads the public sale of personal property of F. Heitzman was well attended and everything brought good prices. His team of grays was knocked off at $311.00; mower, $36; young shoats, $5 apiece; chickens 11c per pound.

The formerly announced lecture was given by Mr. Lowns on last Sunday evening in the Chapel, but the roads being in such terrible condition, only a small number attended. His subject was: "Pilgrim's Progress" which was delivered in a very interestng way. It will be continued on next Sunday evening. The indications point to better settled roads and a large attendance is expected.

Convince yourself that Ely's Cream Balm deserves all that has been said of it as a means of quick relief and final cure in obstinate cases of nasal catarrh and hay fever. A trial size costs but ten cents. Full size, 50 cents. Sold by druggists or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

Mt. Olive, Ark., May 17, 1901.

Messrs. Ely Bros.:—Please send me one bottle of Cream Balm, family size. I think it is the best medicine for catarrh in the world. Very respectfully, J. M. Scholtz.

With a clear sky, the temperature 1000 feet above the earth is six degrees lower than at the surface; with a cloudy sky four only.

TULLYTOWN.

Garrett Williams, of Edgely, has returned from his southern trip. He started, originally, for Charleston but prolonged his trip to Cuba.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Johnson have returned from a two weeks' sojourn at Palm Beach, Florida. They express themselves as delighted with their outing.

Horace and Russell Burton have returned from a trip to Bermuda. They were well pleased with the trip, barring the inconvenience and discomforts of seasickness.

Dr. C. H. Read was in Philadelphia last Wednesday attending to his damage case against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The Doctor reports having settled the case without going to court.

Ellwood Leland is now occupying his new residence, formerly the dwelling of Walter Williams who removed from Tullytown a few weeks ago. Mr. Leland bought the property about two weeks ago.

The regular meeting of the Board of School Directors was held on last Monday evening. The regular routine of business and the passage of a number of bills occupied the time and attention of the directors.

A special meeting of the town council was held last Thursday evening to perfect the organization and transact other necessary business.

During the early proceedings the Lovett-Ulrick combination dead-locked all business. After several ballots a motion to adjourn was made by Mr. Ulrick and lost. The council then went into protrated session. Late in the evening the council organized with the following officers: President, Dr. C. H. Read; Clerk, A. R. Wagenknight; Treasurer, William Wildman; Borough Attorneys, Gilkeson & James; Street Commissioner, William Peters. Amos H. Lovett was elected to fill the vacancy in council. The tax rate and the wages for the men employed on the streets were made the same as last year. The president appointed he following highway committee: O. P. Chamberlain, chairman, Howard I. Moon and Amos Lovett.

Bills were passed for the work of men on the streets during the recent storm and the clerk was instructed to draw the necessary orders.

FALLSINGTON.

Miss Rachel Carver is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Rev. Wright is conducting daily Lenten services in All Saint's P. E. Chapel.

Harvey Ivins and family, who have been sojourning in the South for the winter, have rented a place at Langhorne and will shortly remove there.

W. Groch and daughter, of Milton, Lancaster county, paid a flying visit on Monday to Mr. and Mrs. H. Clinton Negley, who is the daughter of Mr. Groch.

It is announced that Miss Louisa White, of this place, has sent her resignation as principal of the Morrisville public schools to take effect at the close of the present school term.

Rev. O. Randall, of Yardley, last Sunday delivered a sermon on "Sabbath Observance" in the local M. E. Church. Rev. Randall did this at the request of the local W. C. T. U.

A number of pleasure-loving Fallsingtonians, who have been enjoying themselves during the winter by holding euchre parties at the homes of the members, concluded the season on Saturday night at the residence of William Watson.

F. M. Gress, of this place, has some Wilson Brothers poultrymen's mills on hand that he will close out at $3.50 each; the regular price is $5 and they are well worth that to any one who raises chickens. With them corn can be cracked, oystershells and charcoal ground and old crockery ground up.

LOWER BENSALEM.

The turnpike is in a very bad condition in the locality of Bridgewater.

Miss Anna Tyson, of Cornwells, has been visiting Mrs. Tyson of Holmesburg.

Robert Patterson has mored to the farm he purchased on the cross-roads near Bridgewater.

It is reported that Wilmer Ott will move to the house belonging to Charles Banes, in Cornwells.

The Y. M. C. A. contemplate holding a concert in their hall at Bridgewater, the early part of April.

The Home Missionary Society of the Eddington Presbyterian Church will meet at the Manse Friday afternoon.

The teachers of the Bensalem public schools will hold their meeting this Friday afternoon in the Eddington schoolhouse.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Eddington Prebstyerian Church will give a sociable this Thursday evening, in the Y. M. C. A. hall, Bridgewater.

The Johnson and Wagner Concert Company, of Philadelphia, at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, Saturday eveninng, April 5th. Two and one-half hours of continuous laughter. A refined company of clever artists. Tickets 25 cents; children at the door, 15 cents.

During the last two heavy storms, the Poquessing Creek overflowed the banks and resembled a very fair sized stream. It was impossible for the trolley car to go as far as the waiting room, at Torresdale. The water had risen to the height of a carriage body in places.

Magic Color Picture.

A glass of water and a sponge or brush act like a box of paints on the wonderful "Watergraphs," which will appear in next Sunday's Philadelphia Press. It's the cleverest novelty of the year. The pictures are printed apparently in black ink. You touch them with water, and in a second they will become beautiful water color painings. No skill is needed. Children can do it as well as grown folks. These "Watergraphs" are in addition to the mysterious magic pictures, which you rub over a blank space and a picture appears.

The great puzzle-man, Sam Loyd, is now on The Sunday Press staff of entertainers. He has a page each Sunday that will set you thinking and amuse you, too. Order next Sunday's Philadelphia Press of your news-dealer in advance. Then you'll be sure to get it.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

WEST BRISTOL TOWNSHIP.

Charles Russel Lorimer visited his parents on Sunday last.

George Bruce, who has been visiting friends in Philadelphia has returned home.

We have noticed that the robin and blue bird have returned. Real spring is not far distant.

The Rev. Samuel Polk, of Eddington, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jones one day last week.

Lambert Hunt, of Newportville, was visitng his son-in-law William Betz, a few days last week.

Charles Mintzer is the proud owner of one of the finest lofts of pigeons in West Bristol Township.

Flocks of wild geese and ducks have been seen enjoying the muddy water of the Delaware the past week.

We are glad to see that the steamboat Columbia has resumed her trips between Philadelphia and Bristol.

Mrs. William Betz is quite ill at her home having been sick some time past, suffering with nervous trouble.

William Woodward moved to Newportville one day last week, he having obtained a position in Bensalem Township.

Mrs. Robert H. Neeley was visiting friends in Philadelphia a day or two prior to going to Easton, where she expects to reside in the future.

Comly Buckman, of Bensalem, has moved on the lower farm of Mr. Bault, formerly occupied by E. J. Winder, who on Monday last moved to Frankford.

Quite a number of musk rats were killed during the freshet of last week, the little animals having been washed out of their homes. Their pelts at this time of the year bring the highest prices.

The correspondent was in error last week in stating at the sale on Monday last of E. J. Winder that pigs brought ten dollars a pair and corn 91 cents per bushel; pigs brought ten dollars a piece and corn 95 cents per bushel.

Henry Jones, of Sherwood Grove, is the owner of a handsome black steed which he recently purchased. His new horse is greatly admired by all who have seen him and is one of the best travelers on the road.

Several ducking boats were seen on Saturday last, whose occupants searched the Pennsylvania shore for flocks of wild geese and ducks which have been so numerous the past week. The flats around the old Badger fishery seeming to be the preferred feeding grounds of the water fowls.

Robert Neeley, Jr., has gone to Easton, Pa., where his parents will join him latter on, his elder brother having preceded him some months ago. Both young men are highly respected and admired by all who know them, having lived in West Bristol Township almost all their lives. Their friends wish them success, and will assure them a hearty welcome should they ever visit their old home here.

The storm king of Tuesday night and Wednesday last reigned in all severity and held this part of the county in his icy grasp, compelling deference to his majesty for the time. There were no teams able to pass out of China Lane for a day or two, but on Thursday morning "Old Sol" came bobbing up and smiled benigly over "Green Swamp" and as he shot his welcome rays of warmth across the snow, there began a thawing out, which was continued the following day, and once more we began to look for more pleasant weather, hoping this will be the last snow storm of the season.

MORRISVILLE.

Mrs. M. A. Riley, of Trenton, was visiting friends here Tuesday.

Mrs. Walter M. Howell has returned from a visit to relatives in Darby.

E. M. Mull, of Darby, was visiting friends and relatives here Sunday.

Miss Eva Gould, of Bristol, was the guest of Miss Clara Parks, Sunday.

Mrs. John Felsberg has been confined to her home by a severe attack of quinsy.

Clarkson Hess will leave on Wednesday for West Chester, where he will assume charge of a drug store for Shoemaker & Brush.

Our trolley car must have been lost during the recent storm as nothing has been seen of it in the centre of the borough since that time.

The borough is still cut-off by telephone from the surrounding county and it is reported that it will be at least two weeks before service will be resumed.

E. R. Smith and family spent Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives in Philadelphia. While there Mr. Smith, who is a great checker player, succeeded in winning three games straight from the blind checker player in the Dime Museum.

The water supply here failed Saturday afternoon and in consequence the borough was almost without water Sunday and part of Monday. The trouble was in the intake pipe which had become clogged. The screen was accidentally knocked off the end of the pipe last summer and had never been replaced and the pipe had become clogged with debris during the recent high water. Residents were put to great incovenience and the factories to considerable loss. It is hoped that council will take some action in the near future toward preventing future difficulties.

The managers of the base ball team, after considerable difficulty and much opposition on the part of a few people, have at last secured grounds for the coming season. The grounds are situated in the hollow square in the centre of the borough and are to be reached by an entrance on Bridge street, opposite the railroad station. New grand stands and bleachers will be erected and the grounds put into as fine condition as possible. A series of games will be arranged with the Y. M. C. A. team, of Trenton, and a successful season is looked for by the management. The team will hold a fair in Mershon's Hall from March 22 to 29th.

is very careful about her churn. She scalds it thoroughly after using, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are exactly akin to the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if this stomach churn is "sour" it sours all which is put into it? The evil of a foul stomach is not the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of the blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the sour stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting or corrupting element. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant and no narcotic.

In Prussia the majority of the travelling public use fourth class. Formerly the fourth-class carriages had no seats, but recently benches have been introduced. South German railways have no fourth class.

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

The directors of the Yardleyville and Newtown Turnpike Company have appointed Joseph E. Gumpper toll gatherer at gate No. 2, as a successor to William Potts, who will move into Newtown on April 1st.

Isaac B. Brown, who boards at the Friends' Home, Newtown, and is one of our oldest residents, was 87 years old on the 5th inst. He is in the enjoyment of good health and is active as many much younger men.

The first application for a liquor license for the year 1902 was placed on file in the Quarter Sessions office on Friday afternoon. The application was that of James McIlvaine, of Bristol, who petitions for a bottler's license.

Ex-Chief Justice Edward M. Paxson is preparing to erect a handsome residence at the corner of Seventeenth and Chancellor streets, Philadelphia. The building will be constructed of fancy brick and marble. The approximate cost is $30,000.

Some twenty-five employes of the Newtown trolley road, who had assisted during the recent blizzard in clearing the tracks of snow and ice along its line, were entertained at a turkey and oyster supper, at Johnson's Temperance House, Newtown, on Tuesday evening, of last week, by the General Superintendent of the road, Alexander Chambers.

E. W. Martindell, principal of the Middletown township high school, at Hulmeville, is a candidate for county superintendent of schools. He is making a canvas of the school directors of the county. Principal A. S. Martin, of Doylestown, is also a candidate. It was stated in a Doylestown paper that County Superintendent Slotter has not as yet signified a desire for another term. He has served five terms or fifteen years.

Mrs. William T. Poore died at her home in Rutledge, Delaware county, at the age forty years. Mr. Poore is a son of Robert Alpheus Poore, of Riegelsville, this county, and about 1871 entered the employ of W. W. Trego, then engaged in the mercantile business in Newtown. From here he went to Philadelphia. Mrs. Poore's death was a peculiarly sad one. She leaves a family of five children, the oldest one of which is a girl about sixteen years of age. Her maiden name was Sarah E. Barger.

In recopying the first and oldest deed book in the Recorder's office, at Doylestown, Captain Timothy J. Cadwallader found the commission dated 1686, appointing Thomas Lloyd Deputy Master of Rolls of the county, signed by Phineas Pemberton. The office was similar to that of the present Recorder except that the incumbent did all the transcribing for the court and row offices. The penmanship is very legible and among the artistic lines near the seal can be distinguished the outlines of a face.

Reports of damage done to the Delaware canal by the recent flood have been received. The five mile level below Easton has several large washouts. The four mile level above the county line at rocky falls has all been washed away while in the vicinity of Riegelsville there are two large breaks. Below Lower Black's Eddy the canal is in very bad shape. Below New Hope on the nine mile level there are five breaks, and Lawless' aqueduct is wrecked. It will take several months to make repairs along the line. The Lehigh canal fared worse and it is doubtful whether $500,000 will pay the bill of the damage done to the locks and banks between Mauch Chunk and Bristol.

Langhorne Sorosis held its March meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Pierce Flowers. This being election day the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. President, Miss Sue W. Gillam; Vice Presidents, Mrs. Pierson S. Fretz and Mrs Sara E. Allen; Recording Secretary, Miss Grace L. Flowers; Treasurer, Mrs. Andrew M. Bye; Executive Committee, Mrs. Frank Osmond, Miss Laura H. Candy, Miss Emma Wildman and Mrs. Sara E. Allen. Miss Emma Wildman read a paper on "The Negro as a Slave." Miss Lucy M. Burd gave a talk on Booker Washington. "Whittier as an Abolitionist," was the subject of a paper by Mrs. Joseph Mather. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sara E. Allen on March 20.

Walter Kline and John Lee, the two men charged with having attempted to rob the Yardley bank were given a hearing before Justice of the Peace Robert L. Eastburn, of Yardley, on Friday. They were held in $1500 bail each for court. The chief evidence against the prisoners was to the effect that they were identified by trainmen at Yardley station as the men who had bought tickets there on the morning after the attempt at robbing the bank had been done. The cashier, Jesse H. Harper, also recognized the men as two he had seen loitering about the bank the day previous to the attempted burglary. He also testified that on his arrival at the bank he found two holes bored into the door as far as a steel plate where they stopped. A woman living near the bank was awakened by the barking of a dog on the night that the prisoners were supposed to have tried to gain entrance to the building. She looked out the window and saw three men come away from the bank and thought that two of them corresponded in appearance to the prisoners.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe

George W. Waitt, of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by all druggists.

It is not so much what the newspapers say, as what neighbor says to neighbor, or friend to friend, that has brought Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy into such general use. It is as natural for people to express their gratitude after using this remedy as it is for water to flow down hill. It is the one remedy that can always be depended upon, whether a baby be sick with cholera infantum or a man with cholera morbus. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. Have you a bottle of it in your home? For sale by all druggists.

CIGARETTES.

New York Sun.

They have received another black eye, or rather a clean knock-out, so far as it goes, at the Northwestern Academy, in Evanston, Ill. In an address to his students on Monday last Dr. H. F. Fisk, the principal of the Academy, stated that recent competitive examinations had shown that only 2 per cent. of the cigarette users in the school had been able to reach the first grade, whereas in the fourth, or lowest, grade the percentage of such smokers was 57. In conclusion, Dr. Fisk advised all of his pupils who were addicted to cigarette smoking either to quit the habit or the academy. Tuition fees will be refunded, said he, to all who choose the academy.

The fact of stupidity ascribed to the cigarette is greater in this institution than it is in the Kokomo schools, in Indiana, where, it was said a few days ago, 400 pupils out of 1,800 were two years behind in their studies as the result of smoking cigarettes.

It is noticeable that the most virulent attacks upon the cigarette usually occur at this time of the year, that is, in February or March. In February of last year the Legislatures of Michigan and Tennessee and of half a dozen other States were overrun with measures to smite "the cigarette demon" hip and thigh. About a year before that the officers of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad formally expelled the "coffin nails" from the lips of all the trainmen on that system. Early in 1899 the Maryland Public Health Association considered the specific charge that "the cigarette antagonizes the best efforts of the mother for the welfare of her boy." In the investigation which followed, the weight of evidence, including that furnished by some of the best-known physicians in Maryland, was very indecisive. About four years ago a so-called cigarette war was on in New York, and then, as in other trials of the same sort, the charge against the accused lacked the proof necessary to convict.

Indeed, it is less than five years ago that a spirited agitation against the cigarette took place in Chicago, only a short distance from the Northwestern Academy. At that time a thorough analysis by the experts of Chicago's Health Department of fourteen different brands, of the article sold in that city showed that there was nothing in any of the brands examined which, in the opinion of experts, would produce injurious effects upon young men.

The statement of Dr. Fisk shows there are still some in Cook county who disagree with the findings of Chicago's Health Board; and doubtless thousands of people could be found elsewhere who agree with the doctor. Nevertheless, the case against the cigarette cannot be called closed.

Country Life in America.

The March Country Life in America heralds the coming of spring, and offers a profusion of superb pictures relating to all sorts of wild and domestic life of the woods, the field and of country places. The estate feature, this month, is the "New England Garden Home" of Mrs. Jack Gardner, showing the Italian and Japanese landscape architecture. Other leading articles are: "The Sugar-Brush," "The Animals of the Farm" and a poem by John Burroughs entitled "A March Glee." Several notable features are by experts in photography. Of these A. Radclyffe Dugmore contributes "The Life of the Trapper" with photographs of a one-armed trapper and his two St. Bernard dogs in the snowy Canadian woods; camera-shots of big game by A. G. Wallihan, illustrate an article on "The Passing of the Blacktail"; and a series of beautiful photographs of flying fish-hawks are the work of Alfred J. Meyer. "The Return to the Soil" is an editorial discussion of the successes and failures of the city man in agriculture and country home making; "Common Sense in the Poultry Yard" treats of the selection of stock with pointed suggestions on care and management of fowls. A "calender" of various country pursuits includes, not only the more quite pleasures amid birds and flowers of the March woods, but also spring hunting and fishing, and suggestions for some novel sports. Altogether, the success of this most beautiful magazine is inevitable; it grows monthly in number of pages and breadth of feeling for the outdoor world, and already is twice the size originally planned.

The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employe of the Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houlehan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by all druggists.

PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

THURSDAY MARCH 13, 1902.

That our factories are especially prosperous is shown by our heavy importations of raw materials. Under the heading, "Articles in a Crude Condition which enter into the Various Processes of Domestic Industry," the Treasury Department gives the imports for January, 1902, as $30,445,623, an increase over January of last year of over $7,000,000. For the seven months ended January, 1902, the figures for importations of such raw material are $182,500,000, which is an increase of $40,000,000 over the corresponding months of last year.

The determination of the President to have the so-called "merger" of the Northern Pacific and the Great Northern Railways decided in court is neither a play to popular prejudice against railroads nor a desire to hamper large legitimate enterprises. He is, however, desirous of having the question tested by the Federal judiciary of the country, so that if the railroads are guilty of any violation of law they may be punished; on the other hand, if they are not, a speedy stop will be put to the populistic cries against legitimate corporate enterprises.

The passage of the Hansbrough-Newlands bill by a unanimous vote of the Senate has stimulated the irrigation advocates in the House to vigorous effort to pass the bill this spring. The bill provides that the money received from the sales of public lands in the arid region shall be used for construction of irrigation works by the Government, the land reclaimed thereby to be sold to settlers under the Homestead Act, with the cost of the reclamation added. Thus, if it cost the Government $1,000,000 to reclaim a tract of 100,000 acres, the land would be sold for $10 an acre. The House will insist upon an amendment providing that 50 per cent of the proceeds of sales of public lands shall be expended upon works in the States where sold.

The President is considerably disturbed over the phase the Cuban situation has taken. It has been learned from a reliable source that he deplores the attitude of the Democracy in its attempt to make capital out of the cry of sugar-trust legislation, but at the same time hopes that a solution of the question can be reached whereby the basis for such charges can be wholly eliminated. To one unfamiliar with the situation the only course appears a reduction of duty on raw sugar. In view of the fact that the trust controls the price of raw sugar, this would amount to a bonus to the sugar refiners. When the question is carefully studied, it is seen that a reduction can be made in such a manner that the benefit will go solely to the producers of sugar in Cuba.

The ship subsidy bill, it is predicted, will pass the Senate before the 1st of April, but not until it has been radically amended. A majority of Congress clearly favors some legislation which will stimulate the growth of our merchant marine to the end that American goods may be shipped in American bottoms, yet it has been impossible to agree as to the method. Of course, the Democrats as a party are naturally opposed to any policy advocated by the Republicans, as successful legislation will redound to the credit of the dominant party and ensure its continuance in power. The minority Democrats are simply afflicted in this case with their old malady, commonly known as "anti." They are anti everything urged by the Republicans.

Strong opposition to the subsidy bill will certainly be encountered in the House among western members. Just what its fate will be in that body is an open question.

Considerable amount of space has been used in the Democratic and insurgent press of the State in the endeavor to create the impression that Attorney-General John P. Elkin is a very unpopular candidate for Governor, so much so, it is alleged, that Senator Quay has withheld his O. K. of Mr. Elkin's candidacy. Whether Senator Quay has approved of the Elkin candidacy or not is not known here but it apparently makes little difference. While the opposition press is pouring out its columns of vindictive stuff, the Republican voters of the State are busy electing delegates favorable to Mr. Elkin. County after county has recorded its vote in favor of the Attorney General. No other candidate has figured in the race. Louis A. Watres, to be sure, has appeared as a sort of after-dinner candidate, but is absolutely poverty-stricken so far as following is concerned. If there is so much antagonism to Elkin, why has not some candidate come forward to profit by the promised great turning away from Elkin? The truth of the matter is the Republicans of the State have apparently accepted Mr. Elkin as their gubernatorial candidate, and intend to nominate and elect him.

Examination of the portfolio of photographs presented by Prince Henry to President Eliot of Harvard at the reception of the Germanic Museum Association, on Wednesday, shows that Emperor William's gift to the museum, as indicated by the photographs, will embrace the casts of twenty-five subjects.

Many are important architectural monuments, and the collection ranges in point of time from the great bronze doors at the Cathedral of Hildescheim, which date from the beginning of the eleventh century, down to Gottfried Schadow's statue of Frederick the Great at Stettin, which was erected in 1793.

Many of the objects are large, the smallest being the large masks of the so-called dying warriors over the doors of the arsenal at Berlin. The largest are the entire golden gate of the cathedral at Frieberg, the Bishop's seat and altar of the Ulm Cathedral, and the colossal equestrian statue of the Great Elector at Berlin, by Schlueter. Ten statues of heroic size, representing the founders, come from the cathedral at Naumburg, while the tomb of St. Sebaldus, at Nuremberg, furnishes an illustration of famous work in bronze.

It is expected that the casts will arrive in this country about the middle of summer.

Imports into the United States for 1901, including Hawaiian and Porto Rican figures, were over $900,000,000, the largest in the history of the country. Heavy importations do not generally indicate the best conditions. In this case, however, the increase has been in raw materials, which shows an increased activity among our manufacturers, and in tropical articles, such as coffee, sugar, rubber, tea, spices, &c., things which we do not raise ourselves. Such imports amount to $350,000,000 a year, and afford a suggestion for the idea that all this money can be spent in our own tropical possessions, which are capable of furnishing this entire product.

There is a rebellion going apace in Colombia. Nicaragua wants the Nicaragua canal built. It is possible that the latter country has made it clear to Colombia that she does not want the Panama route accepted by the United States, and that unless some obstacle is raised by Colombia to the consummation of the Panama deal, Nicaraguan forces will be found rendering aid and comfort to the rebel forces of the South American country. This would be an effective argument with South American government officials, where the party in power is simply in for what can be made out of public office.

Orders have been issued for the return of 13,000, troops from the Philippines. The United States forces will thus be reduced to 32,000 men, occupying over 400 towns and small stations in the entire group of islannds. Less than a year ago the anti-imperialists were telling us that 75,000 troops would not be able to quell the insurrections in various places. It is probable that before this year is out there will be very little armed resistance to good government in that part of our new possessions.

The silk industry in this country has grown enormously during the last decade and the capital invested in this one branch of manufacturing in 843 establishments now amounts to $81,082,201, according to the last census. New Jersey is first in production and Pennsylvania second. The value of the silk manufactured in this State in 1900 was $31,072,926.

Speaking of political bosses, there is one called Colonel Guffey in this State who is bossing the Democratic party in the latest style. No doubt his near friends call it "leadership." But if there was ever a machine operator in politics with his hand on the lever it is Colonel Guffey. Opportunity is now what the Democratic machine is longing for.

AMONG THE EXCHANGES.

THE DEDUCTION IN COUNTY TAX.

Doylestown Intelligencer.

The reduction in county tax rate of twenty per cent. will doubtless be quite a welcome relief to the citizens. Bucks county has no debt and a fair surplus. A considerable surplus is necessary, at the beginning of each year, because there is comparatively no income for some months. Still the lopping off of some $18,000 of receipts is a pretty large reduction all at once. The county can stand it well enough for a single year, of course, but the experience of the past has shown that radical retrenchments are necessarily followed by subsequent increases. A ten per cent. reduction could probably have been sustained for several years, but a twenty per cent. cut is likely to witness an increase in the no distant future.

A DISCORDANT NOTE.

Doylestown Democrat.

There has been much hippodroming of the German Prince for the purpose, as announced from the other side, of cementing the friendship of the two nations. It is burlesque diplomacy to attempt to strengthen the friendship of nations by pageantry. The Prince's address at the banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria was not happy and emphasized a gulf wider than the Atlantic that separates autocracy from Democracy. The German throne hates and fears the press and it appears from his speech that journalism could suggest nothing to his brother but interviews, mines and explosions, which, however, like Farragut, he was determined to brave. He could think of no better comparison than to liken editors to his brother's generals in the field. His words were not well timed. How could they be?

Prince Henry is out of his habitat in this country. Our antecedents, adjacents and ideals are different from his.

HAD BETTER SEEK COUNSEL.

Doylestown Intelligencer.

Our neighbor the Democrat exploits at length the election of Asher K. Anders, Esq., as county chairman of its party and then discusses the Democratic status in Bucks county. It advises the factions of the party to get together or quit—as near as we can make it out. As Mr. Anders emphatically represents the free silver wing of the Democracy, and the prominent members of the party were largely opposed to free silver and Bryan—above all, because the Bucks county Democratic ring disintegated about a decade since—the publicity of this defiance to the sound money men is scarcely expedient. The Democracy did not carry Bucks county last November—the county ticket is the party line up, the State ticket was put through by anti-machine Republicans. To now challenge the best faction of a minority party organ, under an untried leadership, looks like a huge blunder. The Democrat would better take counsel of some who knows the tone, temper and conditions of the Bucks county Democracy.

PINK PHILOSOPHY.

Lansdale Reporter.

The man who does things, who brings about results, who feels within himself the power of achievement, and is determined to make himself known in the world, never waits to see what the crowd is going to do. He does not ask advice of anybody he knows or wait for precedents. He lays out his own plans, thinks his own thoughts, directs his own energies, plays the game with the cards he has, and does not ask for any impossible pack. He does not complain because obstacles appear in his path; and when he comes to them, he goes through them, not over them or around them. He never whines or grumbles; he simply keeps to his task, and works in a vigorous manly way. He goes about everything he undertakes with a determination that insures victory. It takes courage and originality to step out from the crowd and act independently—to jump into deep water, as it were, and swim or sink. The man who acts boldly wins the confidence of the world.

SILLY SEASON IS ON.

Skippack Transcript.

Some of the county papers have it that Senator Hampton W. Rice, of Bucks county, will be a candidate for Congress in opposition to Congressman Wanger. We don't believe any such thing, but if the Senator does run "agin" Wanger he will know that he is up against the "real thing."

A PERKIOMEN SPASM.

Collegeville Independent.

The Filipinos, at the present rate of philanthrophic movement on the part of the United States may be saved in ten thousand years. The movement at present is to prevent the Islanders from exhibiting their capabilities for self-government and to allow them a measly mean 25 per cent. reduction of Dingley schedules. Is Congress altogether and irrevocably in the clutches of the imperialists and "infant (!!!) industries" of the United States?

AN OLD TIME LAW SUIT.

A CELEBRATED CASE BETWEEN BUCKS AND MONTGOMERY COUNTY CITIZENS—ASSOCIATE JUDGES OVERRULE PRESIDENT JUDGE AND ARE SUSTAINED BY THE SUPREME COURT.

One of the celebrated cases in which Bucks Countians were concerned with citizens of our county was that of William Buckman vs. Peter and James W. Phipps. It is now a leading authority. A few years ago I sent a copy of the Paper Book to Bellefonte, at the request of lawyers of the Centre county Pa., to be used as an authority on one point—namely, the power of Associate Judges, unlearned in the law, to over rule the President Judge learned in the law. On the 7th of July 1856 William Buckman filed a Bill in Equity at Norristown against Peter and James W. Phipps asking our Court to compel the Phipps people to a specific performance of an agreement they had all entered into the 21st day of January 1856 to exchange Buckman's Mill and about 13 acres of land in Northampton township, Bucks county, known as the Spring Garden Mills, bounded by some lands of John Blaker and others and the Newtown and Addisville public road, for a house and lot in Norristown owned by James W. Phipps and a farm in West Calu township, Chester county, containing about 75 acres owned by Peter Phipps, the father of James W. Phipps, bounded by lands of Richard McPherson and John McFarland and fronting on the Wilmington Road. In this trade the Mill property was valued at $8500—the Phipps properties at $7750. There was a mortgage on the Mill property of about $1700 to Charles Blaker which made Buckman owe the the Phipps folks—taking the Mill subject to the mortgage, the sum of $850 which sum was to be paid as follows: in four acres of Woodland in Newtown township, Bucks county; in logs for sawing, in wagons and in grain at cost. The Chester county farm was then in the tenancy of George W. Stackhouse, a son-in-law of Peter Phipps. Peter lived in Whitemarsh township, Montgomery county, on the Wissahickon adjacent to and north of Cleaver's Mill. The deeds were to be exchanged and possession given April 1st, 1856. About the 29th of February 1856 however, Buckman gave James W. Phipps possession of the Mill property, and James gave Buckman possession of the Norristown house; and Buckman moved here, and James moved there. But on the fifth of February 1856 Buckman made a lease with John Davis and William Davis for the Chester county farm, possession to be given April 1, 1856. The Davises moved to the Chester county farm April 1, 1856 and found all the gates locked and Peter Phipps and George W. Stackhouse ready to prevent them from taking possession; the Davises were forbidden and forcibly resisted by Stackhouse taking hold of the heads of the horses. The Davises then brought suit against Buckman for damages in the Chester county Court for not giving them possession, and obtained a verdict against Buckman for $429 and costs of suit.

James W. Phipps and his brother Joseph only remained in possession of the Spring Garden Mills about 10 days or so when they moved away and abandoned the property. Meanwhile someone had been writing anonymous letters to Buckman and to the Phipps people telling them how they had respectively been cheated. Buckman was suspected of writing these letters himself, whether justly or unjustly I know not.

The way was wide open for a big law suit, and for several law suits. Judge Smyser all through the litigation leaned to the view that specific performance could not be enjoined; that Buckman had an adequate remedy at law for damages. The Associate Judges favored specific performance. I was appointed Examiner and took all the testimony. I examined L. E. Corson, the conveyancer, Thomas Rodebaugh, James Burnett, Charles Yeakle, Thomas Janney, Nelson K. Muen, William Cooper, Edward Logan, Plumley Saxton, Cornelius S. Baker, William Henry Chapman.

When we adjourned to December 23, 1856 where Jesse Leedom, George A. Cornell, Richard McPherson, William Stackhouse were examined. February 10, 1857 John Barnsley, Thomas Lines, Edward Logan, William H. Chapman. April 17, 1857 Joseph Phipps, William P. Reif, William Stackhouse, Richard McPherson, George W. Stackhouse, Edwin Knight, John Blaker, Plumley Saxton, T. Wilson Miller, Fredrick Ellinger, Charles Blaker were examined. June 3, 1857 Joseph Wiley, John Cleaver, Charles A. Yeakle, Silas Cleaver, George Kenderdine, Thomas Twining, Ira Hogeland, Henry M. Twining, Mahlon Buckman, Edward Logan, Alfred Lefferts and William Barker were examined.

June 11, 1857, William Phipps, Henry Edey, Charles White, Joseph Phipps were called on and gave evidence. June 17, 1856 Isaac Roberts, Harrison Shoemaker, Jacob L. Paxson.

G. R. Fox and B. Markley Boyer, Esqs., represented the plaintiff, William Buckman; James Boyd Esq., represented the defendants, Peter Phipps and son. The case was fought with great energy and bitterness. The scenes were often exciting, ludicrous and farcical. Boyd had the Law Judge Hon. D. M. Smyser on his side all the way through; the Associate Judges differed from Smyser and Messers. Fox and Boyer would prepare the necessary orders and decrees as the case progressed and the Associate Judges would grant them. To show how determined Judge Smyser was in his view, I will quote his dissent in one instance—there are many of them:

With all due respect to the better judgment of the majority of the court I am compelled from a sense of duty, to dissent from their conclusions, and desire to place my dissent on record. I dissent for the following reasons:

The original order for the issue was unnecessary, irregular, unauthorized and improper. The plaintiff's bill ought to have been dismissed, because the testimony was so opposite and conflicting as to have the equity of his case invvoled in very great uncertainty and doubt, and the parties should have been left to their ordinary legal remedies.

There was no jurisdiction in the Court to amend the original issue, nor is there any to amend or enlarge it.

The amendment is not in conformity with the rules and practice of the court sitting as a court of equity.

The amendment is unnecessary, and, as well as the original issue relates to matters and things over which a court of equity ought not to exercise jurisdiction.

For these and other reasons I dissent from the action of the majority of the court on this particular motion and their entire action on the plaintiff's bill.

I do it, and record this my dissent, from no feeling of disrespect to my associates, but from a sense of duty. I cannot, by silence, consent to appear to acquiesce in that which is so entirely contrary to my views of duty in the case.

Daniel M. Smyser, President Judge.

The issue above spoken of, was made October 10, 1857 and was tried before a jury here November 17, 1857 and on the 20th of November the jury rendered a verdict for the plaintiff William Buckman for $1,028.02 against Peter and James W. Phipps, damages for neglecting to comply with their contract.

There was much other incidental and collateral litigation, and the whole case went finally to Supreme Court. Colonel Boyd felt sure of victory. He printed a strong argument in his Paper Book and seemed to make an effective impression on the Supreme Bench. His flings at the associate judges for presumption to differ from the law judge was in the Colonel's most effective vein. But all was of no avail. Justice William A. Porter writing the opinion of the whole court, in a most poetical and beautiful essay, affirmed the rulings and decrees of the associate judges. "The domain of law differs from that of morals" he said, "like concentric circles they occupy ground common to both. Not every misstatement will vitiate a contract. The seller extols and the buyer depreciates the value of the commodity. For everything untruly said or done by either, sound morals will hold him to account; but the law allows the avarice of mankind thus to play in its orbit, until, by falsehood, damage has been done. The weight of modern authority preponderates in favor of the principle that an intention to deceive and a false statement on a material point, will not overthrow the bargain, unless the statement was the means which produced." 6 Casey 402.

Many amusing incidents occurred during the long seige in this case—the many meetings—the many arguments and various forms which the litigation assumed as it wore along.

Peter Phipps, as I have said, resided up the Wissahickon from Cleaver's Mill. He requested Boyd when he wanted him to write him a note and to give it to Mr. Auge and ask him to put it in his paper which was delivered every week to Phipps in a box at the end of his lane—that the postoffice was inconvenient and distant from his home. Colonel Boyd wrote him one day: "Another meeting in the damn'd Buckman case next Tuesday. Come with your witnesses. Boyd."

He sent this to Mr. Auge and told him to put it in Peter Phipps' paper and send it to him. Auge in the simplicity of his soul printed the note in the paper and mailed it to Peter Phipps. Peter came up in a rage. "What did thee publish thy note to me for?" Boyd says, 'I did not publish it. Did the d—d lunk head print it in the paper?" "Yes," said Peter, "and I was very much offended at thee for giving it publicity." "Oh," said Boyd, "you got it, and I don't know any one else who reads that paper. You need not be afraid that any one else saw it." I guess it was true: for the people then did not often read advertisements—except of horse and cow sales and real estate.

The Associate Judges, unlearned in the law were abolished by the Constitution of 1873, except in counties where a judicial district is composed of two or more counties where they are still retained. In all my experience at the Bar I never knew the Associate Judges to take such a positive stand against the President Judge, or any stand against him—except in a few instances in the granting of licenses, where they controlled, but the President Judge made no open dissent—really was glad to get rid of the responsibility. But not in a civil case do I believe that prior to that incident, in the Buckman and Phipps case, did the Lay Judges over-rule the Law Judges all the way through the trial. It was a bitter pill for Judge Smyser to swallow when the Supreme Court paid no attention to his vigorous dissent, or to the fact that the Lay Judges had made the decree, but in one of the most flowery opinions in our Books, affirmed the judgment of the Court below. Upon this opinion, years afterward, I gained the case of Saurman vs. Taylor, a famous case between a Norristown and Pottstown man, reversing Judge B. Markley Boyer—not even granting a venire facias de nova.

Minnesota is called the "Bread and Butter State," and rightly, too, for last year her mills turned out 26,620,500 barrels of flour and churned over 60,000,000 pounds of butter.

Sperm whales are the richest prizes of the ocean, yielding spermaceti from their braincases, ivory from their lower jaws, and rich yellow oil from their sides.

Getting Thin

is all right, if you are too fat; and all wrong, if too thin already.

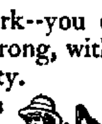

Fat, enough for your habit, is healthy; a little more, or less, is no great harm. Too fat, consult a doctor; too thin, persistently thin, no matter what cause, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

There are many causes of getting too thin; they all come under these two heads: overwork and under-digestion.

Stop over-work, if you can; but, whether you can or not, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, to balance yourself with your work. You can't live on it—true—but, by it, you can. There's a limit, however; you'll pay for it.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the readiest cure for "can't eat," unless it comes of your doing no work--you can't long be well and strong, without some sort of activity.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

Amateur Basket Ball.

On Monday evening the Mechanic basket ball team kept up its winning streak by defeating the Good Will team by a score of 14 to 10. This is the second time this season these two teams clashed and both times the Firemen were defeated.

The game was fast and rough and very interesting and at the end of the first half the Good Will team led by the score of 8 to 5.

In the second half H. Sheppard took Shock's place at forward and Pedrick retired in favor of W. Sheppard, while Metz and Williams changed places and the changes worked wonders. The Mechanics then proceeded to play the Good Will team off their feet and secured nine points while the Third ward boys threw two fouls.

In the first half Williams jumped into the air to catch the ball but instead of catching it the ball struck his hand and bounced into the Mechanics' basket, counting two points for Good Will. The line-up:

Mechanics	Postions	Good Will
Williams, Metz	forward	Dougherty
Shock	forward	Butler
H. Sheppard		Rue
Metz	centre	Lippincott
Williams		Dafter
Chambers	guard	Thornton
Pedrick	guard	Dafter
W. Sheppard		Lippincott

Goals from field—Chambers 2, Metz 1, Williams 1, (for Good Will), Butler 1. Goals from offence—Chambers 8, Thornton 6. Referee—Clark.

The preliminary game was between the Mechanics second team and the Centrals, resulting in a victory for the latter team by the score of 19 to 6. The victors, although their ages range about fifteen years, put up one of the finest passing games as ever seen on the Auditorium floor, either in National League or amateur contests.

The St. Paul's Mission basket ball team defeated the Never Wins in a close and exciting game on last Saturday evening by the score of 14 to 12. The line-up:

St. Paul's	Positions	Never Wins
Holmes	forward	Burton
W. Barnfield	forward	Hansom
Doust	centre	Bottley
E. Barnfield	guard	Phillips
Romig	guard	Wilson

Goals from field—Holmes 2, W. Barnfield 1, Doust 1, Hamson 1, Phillips 4. Offenses—Bottley 2, Phillips 1, Burton 2, Wilson 1. Doust 1, W. Barnfield 2, Romig 1. Goals from offense—Phillips 2, Holmes 6. Referee—H. Metz.

The United States team defeated the White Lillies on Tuesday by the score of 4 to 0. The line-up:

United States	Positions	White Lillies
Fine	forward	Phipps
Crosby	forward	J. Marshall
F. Eberhard	centre	Kelly
L. Eberhard	guard	Watt
A. Clark	guard	B. Marshall

Goals from field—Fine 1, F. Eberhard 1.

Roy Egnar, a Trenton Y. M. C. A. pitcher, has also been secured by Manager Smith.

Machinery Lost at Sea.

On board the steamer "Waesland," which recently sunk in collision on the other side were seventy cases of new machinery for the Bristol Mills of William H. Grundy & Co. The lot consisting of spinning and twining machinery was valued at $15,000 and was shipped from Liverpool. The loss falls upon the English firm.

Annual Feast of Good Things.

The annual "chicken supper," of the A. M. E. Church will be given in Pythian Hall on next Thursday evening. This church which each year gives a "pig roast" and a "chicken supper," has won the reputation of giving the finest feast of any Bristol organization. Preparations are being made to feed five hundred people this year, as the tempting array of well cooked dishes and inviting viands has attracted the attention of every one who enjoys a good meal. Next Thursday evening at Pythian Hall.

Frank F. Bell Ill.

Frank F. Bell, of Bristol, who is spending the winter in Philadelphia with his family at the Hotel Normandie, was taken ill at the Union League on Wednesday evening of last week and has since been confined to his apartments. A telephone message was received by the Gazette at noon today stating that Mr. Bell had spent a comfortable night and was somewhat improved His many friends and acquaintances earnestly hope for his early and complete recovery.

Birthday Party.

Miss Adelia Wright, of Wood street, was tendered a party on the occasion of her 10th birthday on last Thursday evening. There were about thirty-five young people present and a most enjoyable time was had. Games of all kinds were indulged in and refreshments were served. Each guest received a potted plant as a souvenir, while the little hostess was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents. The table was beautifully decorated with flowers and fruits while a large birthday cake occupied the centre.

A Picture Presented.

The social given by the Epworth League in the parlor of the M. E. Church on last Friday evening, was much enjoyed by all present. A pleasant incident was the presentation of a large photograph of the interior of the church at last Easter, beautifully framed. The gift was from James Stephenson and the presentation was made by Doron Green. Miss Annie Myers, secretary of the league accepted the gift with a few approriate remarks, after which the picture was hung upon the wall of the parlor. Refreshments were served before the party dispersed.

Illustrated Temperance Lecture.

Dr. N. W. Tracy, the Kentucky temperance evangelist, has been conducting a series of successful illustrated temperance lectures at the Bristol Methodist Church. The lectures are illustrated by transformation scenes, and beautiful allegories are introduced. Dr. Tracy is an eloquent pleader in the cause of temperance and his lectures have been well attended. Last evening he delivered his celebrated lecture on "The Mississippi of Intemperance, or The River of Death." Tomorrow evening he will give his great lecture on "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." This lecture will be interspersed with songs and transformation scenes. The songs will also be illustrated.

His Hands Exploded.

Henry Ellers of Wood street, burned himself in a very peculiar manner on last Sunday. Taking a pair of soiled gloves he put them on and for the purpose of cleaning them washed his hands in a basin of gasoline. Ater the gloves were thoroughly cleansed he kept them on so that they would dry in a shapely manner. After he thought the gloves had thorougly dried and the gasoline evaporated he proceeded to light a cigar by striking a match. Immediately Mr. Ellers' hands burst into a flame and being unable to get the gloves off he was badly burned before it occurred to him to wrap his hands in an old coat which was at hand. After extinguishing the flames the gloves were taken off, but the skin came with them, leaving very painful wounds.

Lem Goes to China.

Lem Wong, Bristol's well-known Chinaman, a favorite son of the Celestial empire, leaves on Sunday for a visit to China. Lem says he is going because his mother, who is now old wishes to see him, and he has decided to make her a visit of about six months. Lem has lived in Bristol for about eighteen years and during that time, by the conduct of his laundry and various business enterprises has saved considerable money. He is bright and intelligent and has many friends. Lem has been a great student of civilization and adopted many customs of the country. He is very fond of music and for a long while took piano lessons of a Bristol teacher, and advanced sufficiently in the art to take part in a musical which was given at St. James Chapel. Lem goes to New York and from there to Vancouver, B. C., by way of the Canadian Pacific. He stopped in the Gazette office yesterday and wished us to convey his farewell to all his friends.

A Petition to Presbytery.

Owing to the fact that the spiritual affairs of the Bristol Presbyterian Church are in a disturbed condition, and looking to the severance of the relations between the church and its pastor, the following petition, signed by fifty-five communicant members and one trustee, was presented at the meeting of the Presbytery of Philadelphia North, at Germantown, on last Tuesday:

To the Presbytery of Philadelphia North—Petition—Fathers and Brethren:—We, the undersigned members of the Presbyterian Church of Bristol, Pa., subject and submitting to the jurisdiction of the above named Presbytery, being grieved over the unfortunate disturbed and unsatisfactory conditions prevailing in our congregation, considering and desiring its spiritual and material welfare, feel called upon to petition, and do hereby petition the Presbytery of Philadelphia North to appoint at its March meeting a committee of investigation to make a thorough and impartial inquiry into the state of affairs in the said congregation, with a view of adjusting the existing difficulties, or to take such other action in the premises as, in the judgment of the Presbytery, the cause of religion and the Bristol congregation may be entitled to at the hands of your reverend body in the exercise of its constitutional function of oversight of the churches under its watch and care. And for this your petitioners will ever pray.

The petition was presented to the Presbytery and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures, which, after considering the matter and receiving the consent of the petitioners and the Session of the Bristol church, recommended to the Presbytery that the case be submitted to a judicial commission composed of nine members, with full power of investigation, and the decision to be final. Presbytery endorsed the Bills and Overture committee's recommendation, and the commission was selected. The petitioners selected three members, the Session selected three and those six selected the remaining three. The commission is composed of the following clergymen and elders:

Chairman, Dr. W. H. Pumphrey, of Fox Chase; Secretary, Elder Samuel K. Harvey, Holmesburg; Rev. Alexander Henry, Frankford; Rev. Edward K. Donaldson; Rev. Dr. Charles B. Erdman, Germantown; Dr. Thomas McBride Nichols, Germantown; Rev. T. J. Elms, Newtown; Elder William H. Scott, Germantown; Elder Linton, Falls of Schuylkill.

The commission will sit in Bristol tomorrow evening at the Presbyterian Chapel, and listen to the evidence in the case.

The highest trees in the world belong to a species of eucalpytus found in Australia. Single specimens have grown to a height exceeding 400 feet.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE BURGESS—PETITION FROM BATH STREET RESIDENTS—COMPANY WISHES TO BUILD SEWERS—PETITION TO EXTEND FRANKLIN STREET—STANDING COMMITTEES APPOINTED—MISCELLANEOUS BUSINESS.

The March meeting of the Bristol Council was held in the council chamber on Monday evening, with all of the members present excepting Mr. Girton, of the Third ward. The minutes of the regular February and special meetings were read and approved.

The following communication from the Burgess was read:

Bristol, Pa., March 10, 1902.

To the President and Members of Council:

Gentlemen:—At this the first meeting of the present council I wish to call your attention to a few matters of more or less importance affecting the future welfare of the borough.

But before doing this I want to congratulate the members of the last Council upon the excellent record made by them as shown by the report of the late Committee on Finance. Instead of a deficit or a merely nominal sum in the treasury as has been customary at this time of the year and in addition thereto a large number of unpaid bills that had to be held over until the money from the ensuing year's taxes was available we now have over $2700 in the Treasurer's hands and but few outstanding bills unpaid.

This very desirable result has been attained through the wise management of the members of the late Committee on Finance as well as the determined efforts made by the members of other committees to keep the expenditures within their respective appropriations.

Let us hope the same conservative system will be followed by the different committees to be appointed this evening and the affairs of the borough continue as during the past year to be conducted upon sound business principles.

An important ordinance covering an agreement entered into by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the borough was passed by the late Council and approved by me.

This measure settled amicably a question that at one time threatened to intensify a bitterness of feeling that had for a long time unfortunately existed between the two corporations.

Many important matters connected with the above named ordinance will no doubt come up for your consideration during the ensuing year.

These questions you will act upon without undue favor or prejudice toward any individual or corporation and with an eye to the best interests of our borough.

We have been singularly fortunate during the past year in having no destructive fire in our midst.

The out-break of small-pox which at one time threatened our town was promptly suppressed and kept within bounds by our efficient Board of Health seconded by the vigorous measures enforced by an untiring Chief of Police.

For the ensuing year I recommend that the different fire companies be treated as liberally as heretofore by your honorable body.

That inasmuch as very little work was done upon the streets during the past year, that at least one street or part thereof be substantially macadamized.

That the ordinance requiring the proper numbering of all houses be enforced.

The placing of signs with street names thereon at all street corners where none now exist should also be promptly attended to.

That all streets and alleys be kept clear of rubbish and other unsightly matter of every description.

That all gutters be kept free from mud and stagnant water.

That everything be done in fact that will have a tendency to make our town a clean, wholesome and pleasant place in which to dwell.

Respectfully submitted,
E. L. LEIGH,
Burgess.

The Police committee reported that, as a result of the recent storm, the wires of the police signal system had all been broken, and that no registers could be made at the station house. The committee recommended that the system be put in thorough repair. Seven arrests were made during the month—one for larceny, two for assault and battery, two for drunkenness. At the station house 296 tramps were lodged during the month. Upon motion the police alarm system was ordered to be placed in good condition

A number of citizens and taxpayers residing on Bath street petitioned the council that the Street Committee attend to the deplorable condition of Bath street from the last house to the bridge at the upper end of the thoroughfare; also that a lamp be placed at the bridge: and that the bridge itself be repaired. The matter was referred to the Street committee with power.

Chief Pedrick, of the Fire department, in his semi-annual report, stated that three small fires had occurred during the half year. He recommended that 1000 feet of new hose be purchased as it was badly needed. He also suggested that an alarm indicator be put in the Good Will Hose House, as that company had no means of knowing the location of fires and frequently were unable to hear the fire bells. The report was received and filed, and, upon motion of Mr. Wright, referred to the new Fire committee.

A petition was received from the Ball Manufacturing Company asking for an exemption from taxes for a period of ten years. Referred to Finance committee.

An ordinance was read by the clerk which, if enacted, will grant the right to the New Jersey Subway Company to lay sewers, subways and electrical conduits in the borough. The company's proposition is fully set forth in another column. The matter was referred to the Street committee.

A petition signed by a long list of citizens was read asking council to extend Franklin street from its present terminus at Wood street, to Pond street. Referred to Street Committee.

A petition was received from William J. Davis asking permission to construct a sewer on Cedar street to connect with Dr. Stradling's sewer on Market street. Permission was given and the Street Committee instructed to supervise the work.

As the ten-years' lease of the Mill street wharf to the steamboat company will expire on April 1st, the Finance committee was also instructed to notify the navigation company that the wharf, which is in a bad condition, must be put in thorough repair.

President Scull said he hoped the new Public Property commitee would hereafter see that the council chamber was better ventilated. He also called the Street committee's atention to the crossing on Jefferson avenue at the intersection of Pear street. In its present condition every time there is a storm the place is almost impassable. It was also suggested that a crossing be made on Buckley street at the intersection of Corson, owing to the lack of which teams have broken the sidewalk.

The President announced the appointment of the following standing committees:

Finance and Public Property—Owens, Coyle and Girton.

Streets and Highways—Wright, DeGroot and Callahan.

Fire—Poole, Hoeding and Butler.

Health, Poor and Sanitation—Rathke, Spering, Moore and McDonnell.

Police—Fine, Rathke and Gallagher.

Upon motion the matter of Jefferson avenue and Corson street crossings were referred to the Street committee.

A bunch of relief orders came in for considerable discussion. It was disclosed that one woman, a Mrs. Somers, of the Fourth ward, in eight weeks had been given orders for groceries and coal amounting to $25.00. Chairman Rathke, of the Poor Committee declared he would not sign the orders unless ordered by Council; that he thought the matter an unjust one. As the goods had been delivered upon the order of a member of the committee, Council came to the conclusion that the bills would have to be paid. After considerable discussion the bills were passed, but the Poor committee was given to understand that hereafter the practice of giving relief orders promiscuously must stop. The borough attorney has repeatedly informed the Council, Mr. Poole said, that orders should not be given where the objects of the borough's charity can be conveyed to the poor house.

The following bills were ordered paid:

J. K. Young, medicine for poor	$ 2 45
W. C. McFadden, groceries for Mrs. Somers,	8 00
Hugh Harkins, coal for poor,	15 00
James Larrisy, coal for Mrs. Somers,	2 50
James Harkins, coal for Jesse Somers,	2 00

W. F. Leedom, coal for poor,	6 25
Peirce & Williams, coal for town hall,	6 25
J. K. Young, medicine for poor,	2 03
H. H. Poole, transportation,	66
William Grace, shades,	1 20
C. H. Bunting, hauling,	3 00
W. P. Wright, hardware,	8 55
W. G. Albright, removal of garbage,	60 00
Street Committee, pay roll,	98 50
J. O. Thomas & Sons, printing,	67 25
J. W. Wright, clerk salary,	28 03
Bristol E. L. & P. Co., street lights,	277 48

Council then adjourned.

School Board Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the public school board was held in the directors' room in the high school building on last Thursday evening. Those present were: John K. Wildman, Edward H. Foster, M. D. Harrison, Harvey S. Rue, William Booz, W. H. Hall, Abram Ettenger, William Joyce, Doron Green, P. J. Barrett, D. A. Barrett, Manus McGinley. The treasurer reported having received $125 from the delinquent tax collector. The total amount received from the collector to date is $1050, leaving a balance of $661.41 uncollected. A letter was received from Miss Lizzie Tomlinson thanking the board for its action of last month in granting her a leave of absence until the end of the school term. Miss Gertrude Johnson, of Hulmeville, was selected as a substitute to fill Miss Tomlinson's position. Miss Sarah Maule, the assistant teacher in the Secondary department, Wood street, tendered her resignation to take effect March 17th. Miss Maule has decided to take a course at the West Chester State Normal School. The resignation was accepted and Miss Annie M. Myers, a graduate of the local schools, who has been acting as a substitute teacher for nearly two years, was elected to fill the vacancy.

The Superintendent presented her report for school month ending March 4th, which is as follows: Number enrolled, 766; greatest number present, 725; least number present, 143; average attendance, 613; per cent of attendance, 80; present every half day, 73; new pupils admitted 14; number promoted, 44.

Orders were drawn for the Superintendant and Janitors' salaries for month of February and the teachers' salaries for school month ending March 4th. At the request of the delinquent tax collector, warrants were issued for seventeen delinquents. Bills amounting to $74.09 were passed and ordered paid.

Death of Mrs. McIlvaine.

Mrs. Joanna McIlvaine, one of the oldest and best known parishoners of St. Mark's Church, died on Friday at her late residence, Wood and Lafayette streets.

She was the widow of the late Neal McIlvaine who, for more than 50 years was a resident of the town. Mrs. McIlvaine was widely known for her virtues, particularly her great charity, which she dispensed in an unostentatious manner.

She was the mother of seven children, Martin, William, Alice, Maurice, Kate, Gertrude and Francis, all of whom are living and well known in church and social circles.

Her funeral, which took place at St. Mark's Church, on Tuesday morning, was one of the largest seen in the town for years. A solemn requiem mass was sung, the Rev. Father O'Toole, of Brooklyn, being the officiating clergyman, with Rev. John McIlvaine, of Lancaster, a brother-in-law of the deceased, as deacon, Rev. J. McAnany, of Morrisville, sub-deacon. Rev. O'Toole preached an eloquent and touching sermon in which he dwelt upon the great virtues of the deceased, comparing her to the valiant woman named in the Gospel. In concluding his remarks the speaker paid a glowing tribute to the deceased saying that she was an ideal Christian mother, and to those in need, in sorrow or trouble she knew neither race, creed, color or nationality. Besides the above mentioned priest in the chancel were a number of visiting clergymen among whom were the Rev. Father Bunce and Rev. Joseph McCullough, of St. Mark's, Rev. Alfred Welch, Rev. F. Gallagher and Rev. Father McGinniss, all of Philadelphia, and the Rev. Andrew McCue, of Cornwells. There were also present a number of the religious of the orders of Charity and Sacred Heart.

The absolution of the body and the services at the interment of the body were conducted by Father O'Toole, assisted by Fathers McIlvaine, McAnany and McCullough.

Amateur Basket Ball Notes.

The Lenox basket ball team is very anxious to arrange a game with the Mechanics.

The Uneeda basket ball team is anxious to meet any 16-year-old team in Bristol, the Centrals preferred. Address, Dan Boyle, Pine street.

It has been proved to the satisfaction of the Goodwill team that in the Mechanics-Goodwill game, the referee was not unduly influenced in his decisions.

It has been suggested that the Mechanics second team arrange a game with the young ladies of the High school. The teams being about evenly matched a good game would result.

A great profit for a small investment, The Allen Nursery Company, of New York, gurantees to deliver only the best quality of fruit and ornamental trees, flowers, shrubs, vines, etc. Call or address Walter Jackson, agent, 248 Cedar street, Bristol, Pa.

BASKET BALL.

Camden Lost in a Whirl.

In a game that had all the elements of a Western cyclone, Bristol swept Camden off its feet and practically determined the League championship for the season of 1901-02, in one of the best contests of the season at the Auditorium on Tuesday evening.

Camden came up with a band of "rooters" fully determined to capture the game if it were within the power of human Jersey endurance and basket ball science. Upon the result of this game largely depended whether Bristol or Camden captured the championship flag. If Bristol had lost, Camden would have had a good show to finish in first place. By winning all of its remaining seven games and Bristol losing its remaining games with Philadelphia and Millville, Camden can tie the locals for first place, but such an occurrence is beyond the range of probability. By winning the game here on Saturday night from Philadelphia Manager Smith will have the championship won.

The game with Camden on Tuesday night was one of the most interesting basket ball battles that have been waged on the local floor. The home team was in fine fettle and drove the Jerseymen to the tall timber. Klein put up the best game he has played for several moons. Instead of being content to be "fed" Charlie became aggressive. In most of the games Klein will hold a position back of the guards, but on Tuesday night, when the ball was thrown in his direction he would rush in front of the defence man and capture the ball. His goal throwing was accurate, and by his forward rushes eluded Bossert sufficiently in the first half to make six field goals. In the second half Klein hurt his foot and as his team was well in the lead did not over-exert himself.

Mulliner was played at centre and put up a great game. Keenan, his opponent, is the acknowledged fastest centre in the league, a dangerous goal thrower and as active as a cat, but Fred held him down to a single field goal in each half.

Camden became completely bewildered by the fast play and when the smoke rolled way Bristol had the game by the score of 45 to 24. Camden was out-played from the start and after the first five minutes never was within eight points of even. Mulliner scored the first point in a foul by Ferat. The next addition to Bristol's score was made by Bossert in a peculiar manner. When jumping after a scrimmage close to Bristol's basket, Bossert hit the ball and it bounded straight through the Bristol goal. Klein scored from the field, and the pace kept up until Bristol had 8 and Camden 0. Deal made the first point for Camden on a foul by Mulliner. Bossert scored the first field goal for Camden when Bristol's score was at 16. The first half ended 26 to 17 in the local's favor.

After the second half had progressed a few minutes, Ferat was disqualified for swearing at the referee and Thomas was substituted. A general change was made in Camden's line-up. Dippy took Bossert's place. Later Deal retired, Dippy was moved forward and Middleton went in at guard. Bristol made a change by substituting Mellick for Plant. Bennett scored twice in the second half while Hough captured three. The line-up:

Bristol	Positions	Camden
Klein	forward	Dippy, Deal
Hough	forward	Thomas, Ferat
Mulliner	centre	Keenan
Plant, Mellick	guard	Bossert
		Dippy, Middeton
Bennett	guard	Kinkaide

Goals from field—Klein 6, Hough 5, Mulliner 1, Bennett 2, Bossert 1 (for Bristol), Deal 1, Ferat 1, Keenan 2, Bossert 1, Kinkaide 1. Goals fom offence—Klein 7, Mulliner 8, Deal 8, Thomas 4. Offences—Klein 1, Hough 3, Mulliner 4, Plant 4, Mellick 2, Bennett 3, Deal 1, Ferat 3, Thomas 2, Keenan 4, Bossert 3, Middleton 2, Dippy 9, Kinkaide 6. Referee—Stratton.

The Quakers Routed.

The Bristol National League team celebrated its last visit to the Quaker City this season on Saturday night by taking the game from the Philadelphians. The Quakers put up a good game, but the Bristol youngsters were too much for them. Mulliner was played at centre for Bristol and gave fresh evidence of his fitness for the posittion. At the end of the first half Bristol was in the lead by the score 12 to 6. The final score was Bristol 28, Philadelphia 19. The line-up:

Bristol	Positions	Philadelphia
Klein	forward	Neuman
Hough	forward	Duffy
Mulliner	centre	Oves
Plant	guard	Jones
Bennett	guard	Hancock
		Markwardt

Goals from field—Klein 3, Hough 3, Mulliner 2, Bennett 1, Neuman 2, Oves 2, Hancock 1. Goals from offence—Klein 10, Oves 9. Offences—Klein 3, Hough 5, Mulliner 4, Plant 3, Bennett 1, Duffy 6, Jones 6, Markwardt 5, Oves 2. Refree—Stratton.

New York Falls at Last.

After administering three straight defeats to the local team New York fell by the wayside last Thursday evening and Bristol won the contest by the score of 37 to 33. The game was not an exciting one, the first half being especially a "dopy" affair.

For some unaccountable reason Bristol never plays in its proper form when New York comes to town. Klein and Everingham both appeared to be dead while Plant did the bulk of the work of the home team. Mellick also was in the game for all there was in it and during the first half kept Eberlein from scoring. The first half ended with the score 12 to 10 in the visitors' favor.

At the opening of the second half Bristol started with a burst of speed and within three minutes passed the Gothamites and led by six points. Hough during the half made seven field goals. Everingham got two and "Honest John" Plant got there for one. Referee Rutschman who had not appeared on the local floor for a long time appeared and rendered satisfactory service. The line-up:

Bristol	Positions	New York
Klein	forward	Grief
Hough	forward	Eberlein
Everingham	centre	Wendleken
Plant	guard	Reed
Mellick	guard	Dietrich

Goals from field—Klein 1, Hough 8, Everingham 2, Plant 2. Grief 3, Eberlein 3, Wendleken 3, Reed 4. Goals from offence—Everingham 11, Eberlein 4, Reed 8. Offences—Everingham 3, Plant 4, Mellick 6, Grief 3, Eberlein 4; Wendleken 3, Reed 7, Dietrich 1. Referee—Rutschman.

WANT TO BUILD SEWERS.

A NEW JERSEY CORPORATION ASKS COUNCIL FOR THE RIGHT TO BUILD SEWERS AND CONSTRUCT ELECTRICAL CONDUITS.

At the meeting of the Bristol Borough Council held on Tuesday evening, a proposition was entered which, if carried to its fulfillment, will prove to be one of the most important transactions that the members of council have had to consider within recent years.

Upon the request of Frank J. Leonard, one of the incorporators, an ordinance was introduced granting the "New Jersey Subway Company, its successors and assigns, the franchise to lay and maintain underground street conduits, subways and sewerage systems in the borough of Bristol, Pennsylvania, together with the necessary and convenient appliances and apurtenances, and to carry in the subways electric wires and other utilities, and to grant the use of said conduits, subways and sewerage pipes to other individuals and corporations, and providing for placing, in said conduits and subways, electric wires now carried overhead, and providing for a complete sewerage system maintained in accordance with the laws of the State of Pennsylvania."

The franchise allows the company to rent its conduits to any other corporation as well as allowing connections with the sewerage system. No more than one thousand feet of street shall be opened at one time. All work shall be done under the supervision of the borough engineer. The rates must establish a fixed scale of charges for the use of its conduits, before beginning operation, the rents to remain the same. Use of the conduits and sewerage systems shall be given free for borough purposes. The company agrees to pay five per cent. per annum of its net earnings to the borough and to sell, at any time after two years, to the borough the entire plant, if the borough will assume the five per cent. gold bonds issued by the company and to pay for the company's stock on a five per cent. basis.

One section of the ordinance provides: "Within one year from the completion of the subway, ready for use and occupancy, all overhead and insulated wires carrying electricity, with the exception of bare trolley wiires, on the same highway, may be placed only in the the conduits of the said subway Company, and thereafter all wires and poles sustaining them, except the requisite terminal poles, shall be removed from the highways, and within one year from the completion of the sewerage system of the said Subway Company ready for use, all property owners having property abutting on the highway on which the sewer is built and maintained may connect only with the said sewerage system."

The incorporators of the New Jersey Subway Company include Frank J. Leonard, of Trenton, and Alfred M. Worstall, of Newtown. The company is chartered under the laws of New Jersey and can increase its stock at will.

The company has constructed subways in Bridgeton and Millville, N. J., and Oliphant, Pa., and has asked the Doylestown council for the right to build sewers and conduits. The proposition appears to be a fair one and is certainly deserving of the careful consideration of council.

Mr. Leonard states that his company is prepared to go to work and build a sewer system in Bristol, providing council grunts the right.

Basket Ball Notes.

Quakers Saturday.

Deal is a cinch for Bennett.

Mulliner is like Everingham—he is so different.

Klein simply toyed with Bossert during the first half.

Turn out Saturday night and see Bristol win the pennant.

Trenton is always looking for trouble and generally gets it.

Klein played a great game at Philadelphia on Saturday night.

Ladies will be given reserved seats on Saturday for twenty cents.

Plant received a magnificent shower bouquet on Tuesday night.

Ferat was disqualified by Stratton for using profane language to the refreee.

Plant accidentally hit Referee Stratton in the eye, making quite a severe cut.

Dippy was in the game ten minutes and during that time committed nine fouls.

Camden made but one field goal in the second half and that was thrown by Keenan.

Only two more games—Phillies on Saturdav night and Millville the Saturday following.

The last time the Quakers were in Bristol they came within an ace of defeating the locals.

When Hough starts down the floor with the ball, some one is bound to commit a foul before they stop him.

Manager Smith has signed Len Plant, a brother of John Plant. Len is said to have a bundle for speed and is looked upon as a "comer."

The Sons of Temperance Juniors will line-up against the Gundy's sorting room team in the auditorium tonight.

It is a significant fact that no rows have occurred at any National League games during the entire season, only when Trenton has been concerned.

But two more games at home—with Philadelphia on Saturday and with Millville on the 22d inst. Bristol has one game away from home—with Millville.

As the season is drawing to a close, Manager Smith desired to do something nice, so has decided to reduce the price of reserved seats for ladies on Saturday evening to twenty cents.

Manager Smith offered $200 to Frank Morganweck for the purchase of Keenan, but William Morganweck put up $275 and threw in Thomas to boot and got the Phillies crack centre.

Mulliner's playing has been a revelation. He put up a splendid game against Camden. He not only scored ten points, but his floor work was of the tip top order. His habit of getting in the way of the ball is one that Everingham never cultivated.

"Sandy" Shields was unconditionally released by Maanger Smith on Thursday night and was immediately signed by the New York team. "Sandy" played with New York Monday night against Trenton and got in a row with Stinger. Frank Smith, who claimed he had disposed of all interest in the Trenton team, entered the cage with a cop and caused the farcical arrest of Shields. "Sandy" was promptly released, however, and re-entered the game, and Trenton was pomptly downed.

A SERPENT'S APPETITE.

His Meal of a Rubber Boot Was a Disastrous One.

From a gentleman who was at one time a resident of Brazil comes a remarkable story about a snake that he encountered in the woods one day which followed him with much persistence.

"Sitting on a stump, I became aware of the approach of a huge snake," writes this gentleman. "He must have been fifteen feet in length. There was no doubt the snake was about to attack me.

"Without hesitating for a moment I discharged my two barrels. For a short time the reptile raged furiously, and I climbed a nearby tree. I had hardly reached the first boughs when I saw the snake approaching the tree, and it climbed up behind me.

"Higher and higher I went. Higher and higher came the serpent. My heavy rubber boots were a great drawback to my climbing, so I tried to get rid of them. I took one off and dropped it, and just as I had the second in my hand the snake reached me, and I, in my desperation, tried to shield myself with the rubber boot.

"Then the snake made a dash and, getting hold of the boot, turned and descended the tree. I was saved, but I had not the courage to leave the tree before my friends arrived. I told them of the adventure I had and rode home minus one rubber boot. Of his snakeship nothing could be seen.

"A few weeks later on another hunting trip we found in the road a big dead snake, terribly swollen. We cut it open and found, to our astonishment, my rubber boot not in the least injured."—New York Times.

NATURAL HISTORY.

Thoroughbred dogs are less intelligent than mongrels.

A full grown elephant can carry three tons on its back.

The horse has no eyebrows.

There are 4,500 muscles in the body of a moth.

The Dorking fowl is the only living bird which in its adult condition possesses a five toed foot.

The largest bird of prey in the old world is the lammergeier, or bearded vulture, which has a wing expanse of nine to ten feet.

Comparatively few horses attain to seventeen hands, but Kansas boasts of one that measures twenty hands and weighs 2,412 pounds.

Wasps may often be observed detaching from fences, boards or any old wood the fibers, which they afterward manufacture into papier mache.

The smallest of British animals is the harvest mouse, which makes a globular nest in wheatfields A full grown specimen weighs half an ounce.

The First Iron Ship.

The first iron ship has more reputed birthplaces than Homer. Both the Clyde and the Mersey claim pre-eminence in this respect. Sir E. J. Robison of Edinburgh designed an iron vessel in 1816, which was not launched till three years later, and it is said that an iron boat was worked on the Severn even as far back as 1787. Steel was not used in the construction of merchant ships' hulls until 1859. Old salts were not alone in their belief that wood was meant by Providence to float, but iron to go to the bottom. A naval constructor of some repute once said: "Don't talk to me of iron ships. They are contrary to nature." Now none but small craft are built of wood in this country.—Chambers' Journal.

Soothing.

Li Hung Chang had beyond all doubt an iron will and a very unsentimental heart. Once when he was viceroy of Chili a man who had tampered with a telegraph wire was brought before him. The man wrung his hands and begged for mercy, saying that he would never touch the wire again.

"Don't be vexed, my good fellow," said Li, "or trouble yourself any further about the matter. I shall take care that it does not happen again."

Then he turned to the jailers and gave the order, "Cut off his head!"

Nice For Lovers.

"If I am not too presumptuous," said the young clerk, "I will ask you to look at our new typewriter especially adapted for writing love letters."

"Oh," exclaimed the blushing maid, "is there any difference?"

"Yes, indeed! Among the punctuation points there is a little star for marking kisses."—Philadelphia Record.

Literary Subjects.

"Whom did you discuss at your literary club this afternoon, dear?" asked the husband in the evening.

"Let me see," murmured his wife. "Oh, yes, I remember now! Why, we discussed that woman who recently moved into the house across the street from us and Longfellow."—Ohio State Journal.

A Financial View.

Eustacia—I knew that man was a physician by the way in which he shook hands—his tender, delicate, considerate touch.

Edgar—Yes, of course; that's his five dollar touch.—Detroit Free Press.

A Mean Man.

"He is the most inconsiderate man, I understand."

"How?"

"He refuses to give his wife any grounds on which to get a divorce with alimony."—Chicago Post.

Product of the Clove Tree.

The limbs of the clove tree being very brittle, a peculiar four sided ladder is used. As fast as the buds are collected they are spread in the sun until they assume a brownish color, when they are put into the storehouse ready for market. A ten-year-old plantation should produce twenty pounds of cloves to a tree. Trees of twenty years frequently produce upward of 100 pounds each.

Wall Street Methods.

City Nephew—Where is uncle this morning?

His Aunt—He's out in the barn watering the stock.

City Nephew—I'll go out and help him. I learned all about that in the broker's office where I work.—New York Herald.

Reasonable.

Happy Hogan—Say, Birdie, didn't yer never have yer picture taken?

Birdie Blinks—Picture nothin',

Happy Hogan—Never have de price?

Birdie Blinks—Course I had de price, but I never had de nerve.—Judge.

Why She Complains.

"She finds fault with her husband's sealry, they say."

"Yes; she says it isn't like her father used to make."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

In the Gloaming.

Sweetheart (coyly)—Now, you must take only one, George.

Swain—But one from one leaves nothing. Let's make it one each and tie.

Sweetheart — It's awful sudden, George, but you may ask papa.—New York Times.

A Most Gentle Touch.

"'Do unto others as you would have others do unto you,'" said Markley. "That's the Golden Rule, and I believe in it too. Don't you?"

"Well," replied Borroughs, "if I did I'd be offering to lend you $10 this minute."—Philadelphia Press.

To a woman it seems easy for a man to make money. To a man it seems easy for a woman to be amiable.—Atchison Globe.

The Vulnerable Point.

Percy—I've made Pauline sorry she threw me over.

Guy—In what way?

Percy—Why, I'm attentive now to a girl five years younger than she is.—Detroit Free Press.

Bamboo pens have been used in India for over 100 years. They are made like the ordinary quill pen and for a few hours' writing are said to be very serviceable.

Plays It Only Once.

"In his time," quoted an actor, "a man plays many parts."

"Yes," admitted the man who had "backed" a show, "and some of them he plays many times, but there's one he never duplicates. He never plays 'angel' but once, for no fellow has the money to repeat it."—Chicago Post.

The Oldest Epitaph.

The oldest epitaph in English, which is found in a churchyard in Oxfordshire and dates from the year 1370, to modern readers would be unintelligible not only from its antique typography, but from its obsolete language, the first two lines of which run as follows and may be taken as a sample of the whole:

"Man com & se how schal alle dede be: wen yow comes bad & bare: noth hav ven we awny fare: all ye werines yt we for care."

The modern reading would be: "Man, come and see how shall all dead be when you come poor and bare; nothing have when we away fare. All is weariness that we for care."

Ears.

If your ears burn, people say, some one is talking about you. This is very old, for Pliny says, "When our ears do glow and tingle, some do talk of us in our absence."

Shakespeare, in "Much Ado About Nothing," makes Beatrice say to Ursula and Hero, who had been talking of her, "What fire is in mine ears!"

Sir Thomas Browne ascribes this conceit to the superstition of guardian angels, who touch the right ear if the talk is favorable and the left if otherwise. This is done to cheer or warn.

One ear tingles some there be
That are snarling now at me.

Before Mirrors.

Mrs. Snaggs—I read a paragraph in the paper which said, "Woman was made before mirrors, but it wasn't her fault." Don't you think that is a mean remark to make about woman?

Mr Snaggs—Yes, I think it is. What the writer meant to say was that woman was made before mirrors and had been before them ever since.—Exchange

IT WAS A PRETTY PISTOL.

But It Proved Too Expensive For the Bachelor Girls.

"No, we don't keep a pistol in our apartment any more," said the girl who draws for the magazines and shares a small flat with a young woman who teaches in one of the private schools; "not since an experience we had last winter. Before that we did, and we had a perfect beauty of a pistol, too," she added in a tone of regretful reminiscence, "silver mounted and handle inlaid with pearl. We spent a good deal more than we could afford for it, but we didn't like those plain steel things. Now it's gone, though. I had to give it away, and I don't suppose Marian will ever consent to our having another.

"You see, this is what happened: I was the one who knew more about handling a pistol, so I used to sleep with it under my pillow. We were both awfully afraid of burglars, and after there had been a series of robberies in our neighborhood we were so terror stricken that we were ready to take alarm at the slightest sound. One night, to our horror, we were both aroused by a creaking noise and then a light bump, just as if some one, tiptoeing around, had stumbled against something. For an instant we were simply paralyzed with fright. Then, looking tremblingly about the room, I made out over in one corner a tall, dark figure, perfectly motionless. I reached cautiously for the pistol, aimed it and fired twice. The figure did not fall, and the horribly strange thing was that it did not move or make a sound. Yet I felt sure I had hit it.

"Although we were frightened half to death we felt we must get up and light the gas to investigate. By that time people from the other apartments in the building were rushing to our door to find out what the shots meant. Well, the light revealed matters. I had simply ruined Marian's new forty dollar coat which hung on a hook in that corner. The noise we heard? Oh, that was some one on the floor below who had come in late and stumbled against a chair."—New York Tribune.

A FATAL MEAL.

The Untimely Ending of a Crow Who Swallowed a Centiped.

"Saw a curious thing in California last winter," said the man who travels about. "I had stopped for a moment to chat with a man who was plowing, when he called my attention to a large centiped that he had just plowed up.

"'Come along with me a few feet,' said he, 'and let's see what those crows will do when they find it.'

"There were several large carrion crows that had been following the farmer and picking up the insects that were turned up, and they were now a few feet away, waiting for the plow to start again.

"We went on a few feet, and the crows followed. One big, black fellow soon saw the centiped and swallowed him at one gulp. Then, in the expressive slang of the day, there was something doing in the neighborhood of that crow. With a caw of despair he mounted into the air for perhaps a hundred feet, then fell heels over head till he was a few feet from the ground. Then he managed to catch himself and flew upward again and away for the hills, cawing wildly. He had not gone more than 300 feet when he lost all control of himself and fell like a shot to the ground. We went over to where he had fallen and found him on his back with his feet in the air, stone dead.

"In a way I know how that crow felt when he awoke to the situation. I hadn't forgotten my first spoonful of tabasco sauce that a joking friend once talked me into swallowing."—Detroit Free Press.

How She Economized.

Husband—Mary, dear, did you buy that book you were telling me about on "how to economize in the kitchen."

Young Wife—Yes, dear, and it is just too lovely for anything! It is full of recipes telling how to utilize cold roast turkey with mushroom sauce and how to make truffle omelets and appetizers and— Why, John, what is the matter?

He staggered to the fireplace. "Give me that cookbook quick, Mary," he gasped hoarsely. "I must either burn it or rob a bank to pay for it!"—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Mirror In Photography.

Many amateurs in possession of a fixed focus camera, says Photography, have doubtless found a difficulty in obtaining a photograph of some object in a room through being too near to it. This difficulty can often be overcome by placing a large mirror in front of the object and the camera in front of the mirror. Avoid the camera being reflected in the glass by standing the on one side.

No Joking Matter.

"Joaksmith, it appears, is married and has gone to housekeeping."

"Not at all. What made you think so?"

"He's been writing so many jokes about servant girls lately he must have had some experience with them."

"Nonsense! If he'd had such experience, he wouldn't joke about it."

Warded Off.

Mr. Phoxy—I'll tell Borem that Jenks is coming. Borem owes him money.

When the Rod Was Not Spared.

The change of thought and conditions of mankind is no better illustrated than by the history of the rod. In an article on the morals of the child by Dr. Grace Peckham Murray there is mention made of a Suabian schoolmaster who during his fifty-one years of superintendence of a large school had given 911,500 canings, 121,000 floggings, 209,000 custodes, 136,000 tips with the ruler, 10,200 boxes on the ear and 22,700 tasks by the heart.—Delineator.

Lion and Eagle.

An English paper notes it as a curious fact that although the eagle is the national bird of the United States and therefore deserving of peculiar honor, yet, in point of fact, the bird is nearly always ruthlessly killed when the opportunity offers.

This statement seems to be impressive until it is remembered that whenever they have a chance Englishmen ruthlessly kill the lion, which symbolizes the greatness and power of the British empire.—New York Tribune.

Husbands' Motto a Bible Verse.

The Husbands' Protection society of London has as its motto the naive verse found in what is known as the Wife Beater's Bible, published in 1549, copies of which may be found in many museums and libraries. This verse is as follows.

"He dwelleth wyth his wyfe according to his knowledge and taketh her as a necessarye helper and not as a bonde servant or a bonde slave And if she be not obedient and helpfull to hym he endeavoureth to beate the fear of God into her heade that thereby she maye be compelled to learne her dutie and to do it."—London News.

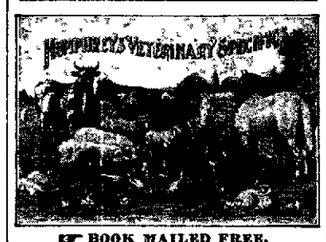

The guests are gone the smile slips from the face of the hostess and she gives up to the pain which racks her body. Many a woman entertains and wears a smile while her back aches and her nerves quiver with pain. Surely any medicine which offers relief to women would be worth a trial under such conditions. But when the woman's medicine, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, is offered with the proof of efficacy in thousands of well attested cures, what excuse can then be offered for suffering longer?

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It dries enfeebling drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"It is with the greatest pleasure I write you the benefit my mother has received from your 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" says Miss Carrie Johnson of Lowesville, Amherst Co., Va "She suffered untold misery with uterine disease and nervousness, and had a constant roaring and ringing noise in her head After taking six bottles of Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery,' she was entirely cured"

THEY CRUSH THE POWERS

This is written in mid-October. The long, oppressive summer is quite gone. Fading leaf, withering tree and the rustling corn in the fields are signs of the season. Fog, frost, rain, snow,—they are coming. You remember last winter; of 1900 and 1901. The weather was cruel. Ah! the thousands it killed, and the hundreds of thousands it maimed and crippled. Oh, the rough grasp it laid on men at work, women at home, and children in cribs and cradles. Coughs that began before Thanksgiving Day are racking and tearing them still; yes, and growing worse as they dig deeper into the poor, tired throat and lungs. Many were cured by using Benson's Porous Plasters. For the soothing and healing power of these Plasters is wonderful. They conquer the complaints

THAT ARE KILLING THE PEOPLE.

No other plaster, no other medicine or application, can compare with them. Coughs, colds, backache, rheumatism, lumbago, kidney and liver troubles, asthma, influenza,—they all go down before Benson's Plasters like a snow image in the sun. You can't throw money away on a Benson's Plaster. Everybody is going to use them this season. But make certain you get the genuine. All druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each.
